FIRST HARBOR WORK IS STARTED

STONE FOR JETTY IS DUMPED TODAY

Construction To Be Pushed As Fast As Material Can Be Secured

ROCK for the west jetty for the opening of the Santa Ana river direct into the ocean today is being dumped and the work will continue as fast as the contractor can secure the rock.

This is the first step in the improvement of Newport Bay as a harbor under the county bond issue. Diversion of the river from the bay to the ocean is an important feature of the proposed dredging of the harbor. Delay in starting has been occasioned by inability to get railroad transportation.

Announcement that the work of building the jetty is now in progress will be welcome news to Orange county residents who have been awaiting action in starting the big project for the creating of a commercial harbor at Newport under the $500,000 bond issue voted by the county last June.

There is possibility of getting the river cut through to the ocean before the winter floods. It will take at least sixty days, under most favorable conditions, to complete the west jetty, and the one on the east will have to be constructed before the river channel can be cut through to the ocean.

Bridge Across Channel
An agreement has been reached between the Pacific Electric and the harbor commission for construction by the P. E. of a bridge across the new channel, which is to be 500 feet wide. Right of way through the railway property also has been secured and nothing is left as a possible tangle for halting progress of the work.

The harbor commission met this week in regular session and transacted business requiring its attention. It has been informed by the engineer in charge of the survey for the coast highway that the route, so far as he is concerned, has been settled, and his recommendation will be that the highway cross the Santa Ana river at Bitter Point, using the top of the dam to be put in at that point, as a road.

The dam proper will not be of sufficient width and the cost of the extra fill that might be necessitated to widen the dam to make it available as a part of the coast highway will have to be paid by the state commission, or the county. It is understood that the state highway commission has ruled that all bridges will have to be constructed at the expense of the county and whether the commission will interpret the extra fill as the equivalent of bridge work is unknown.

Route Along Bluffs
The route, according to the recommendation of the engineer, will follow along the bluffs from Bitter Point to the Country Club. At the Country Club, the road will take up the side of the bluff to a height sufficient to meet the elevation of a bridge that will span the channel of the bay leading to the upper reaches of the body of water. The bridge will be of steel construction, but its length is not definitely known.

The point at which the bridge will be built is at what is known as the old Newport Landing. At the east end of the bridge it will be necessary for a big fill-in to connect with the road to the Palisades. The fill will be made by the Harbor Commission with material dredged from the bay in making a channel from the mouth of the bay to a point near the bridge crossing the Santa Ana river in the Newport boulevard. The state highway will go on south by way of the Palisades. Whether it will pass directly by the Palisades or a little to the north, has not been decided by the engineer.

The bridge to span the channel at the Country Club point will be high

Frantic Rush On Today To Get Booze Over Line

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 16.—The last frantic rush of John Barleycorn to Mexicali and Tia Juana, Mexico, began early today.

Exact gaugers and customs collectors, armed with receipt books, syphons and hydrometers, attacked unnumbered barrels of liquor which was fairly shouting for a chance to get over the line.

But the work was slow and it's predicted some will be left behind. Every barrel has to be tapped, gauged and tax paid before it leaves the U. S. and then Governor Cantu of Lower California has his own little ceremony to stage when it gets "across the street."

It is estimated $10,000,000 worth of liquor has been shipped to Mexicali alone.

SHIP BUILDING FRAUD INQUIRY WILL CONTINUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—Federal investigation of alleged gigantic frauds amounting to millions of dollars, perpetrated by shipbuilding plants on the Pacific coast through the means of falsified vouchers, was being continued today by agents of Special Assistant Attorney General Bert Schlensinger and W. N. Tidwell, special agent of the treasury department, who was yesterday appointed to assist Schlensinger.

No definite information as to the shipyards involved in the charges was obtainable today. Intimations were made, however, that the scandal will touch shipbuilding plants in this city, Seattle, Portland, Tacoma and Los Angeles.

"The bureau of investigation has collected overpowering evidence of fraud but to make it public at this time would be unwise," said Schlensinger before leaving for the north where the investigations are continuing today.

Evidence of Fraud Almost Ready to Hand Grand Jury

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Evidence of shipbuilding frauds on the Pacific coast is now practically ready for consideration by a grand jury, according to officials of the department of justice here today.

Although department of justice officials refuse to divulge the exact nature of the evidence, it is known to include proof that advantage was taken of the cost plus contract system by which the builders were allowed a profit of ten per cent above the cost of construction.

Padding of the construction cost estimates is the method used to beat the contractors and defraud the government of millions of dollars according to justice officials.

The treasury department and shipping board investigators are assisting Palmer's men in preparing the evidence. Practically all of the Pacific coast attaches of the bureau of investigation of the department of justice have given their time almost exclusively to the investigation.

Portland Folks Surprised at Ship Building Charges

PORTLAND, Ore., Jan. 16.—Shipping board officials here expressed surprise today at the announcement of federal officials, in bringing charges of shipbuilding frauds on the Pacific coast.

If Portland is to be included in the grand jury investigation it is believed the probe will be confined to the supply and sales division concentration warehouse of the emergency fleet corporation.

"GO WEST YOUNG MAN" IS BOOZE HOUNDS CRY

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—"Go West, young man, go West!" Broadway boozehounds are using this greeting today bemoaning the fact that liquor will be available in western cities some time after the curfew rings along the proverbially gay white way.

Permanent prohibition will go into effect one hour later in Chicago and three precious hours later in San Francisco than in New York.

BIG 3 DRAFTS LETTER DEMANDING EX-ASPER

PARIS, Jan. 16.—The "big three" has drafted a letter to be sent to Holland demanding extradition of the former kaiser, it became known following long discussion of the subject between Premiers Clemenceau, Lloyd George and Nitti yesterday.

BRYAN GETS BITTERNESS BUSY WITH SENATORS ON PACT

Immediate Action Urged By Nebraskan Among Solons At Washington

By L. C. MARTIN (United Press Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—William J. Bryan today continued his campaign among Democratic senators for immediate ratification of the peace treaty, through a Democratic surrender to the Republicans, if no other way is possible. Bryan, who came to Washington late yesterday, was scheduled to see a number of senators today.

Despite the fact that his proposal that Democratic members walk out of the senate chamber and let the Republican majority ratify the treaty with the Lodge reservations was not taken seriously by the Democrats, Bryan continued to urge it as a last resort.

Democrats who attended a conference late yesterday with Senator Lodge and other Republicans in Lodge's office, today were discussing changes in the Lodge reservations suggested at the meeting. They are to report at a second conference with Lodge Saturday.

College Treaty Referendum Result Sent to Washington

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Results of the intercollegiate treaty referendum today were forwarded to Senators Lodge and Hitchcock, rival leaders in the senate treaty fight.

The vote of faculty and students in American colleges so far shows the following:

For ratification of the league and treaty without amendment or reservations, 2,421.

Any compromise under reservations which will make possible immediate ratification of treaty, 22,935.

Ratification of the league and treaty with the specific reservations voted by a majority of the senate, 16,466.

Compromise of the reservations making clear that America can be involved in war only by declaration of congress, 10,419.

Opposition to ratification in any form, 6,691.

In favor of peace with Germany at once, leaving the question of the league to be settled afterwards, 5,937.

NEW SHIPYARD RAIL CHARGES AUTHORIZED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—New railroad rates affecting the Pacific coast shipyards have been authorized by Rail Director Hines, it was learned today.

The new rates cover ship plates in carload lots and are to become effective February 25. They range from 75 cents to $1.10 a hundred pounds, according to the point from which they are shipped.

TIE UP RAILROAD MEN, TAKE $100,000 BOOZE

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Six bandits tied up the yardmaster and seven members of a freight train crew in the Pennsylvania railroad yards early today, broke into two cars and escaped with 75 barrels of liquor valued at $100,000.

FRANK MATTESON DEAD.

SANTA CRUZ, Jan. 16.—Frank Matteson, former member of the State Board of Equalization and former grand president of the Native Sons of the Golden West lodge, died here yesterday after an illness of two months. He arose at his usual time, shaved himself and had breakfast and a short time thereafter expired in his chair.

Indian War Veteran and Another Colonist Tell Probers Theory

By RALPH R. WAYNE (United Press Staff Correspondent)

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Jan. 16.—"Meddling" of the United States government, in connection with unseating of Huerta, was advanced today as the cause of bitter feeling and hostile action against Americans in Mexico in testimony before the Fall sub committee investigating the Mexican situation.

P. W. Warner, 71, a veteran of the Indian wars, and O. G. Poorbaugh another colonist in Mexico, both advanced this theory.

Warner headed a colony of more than 200 American families who settled the Huasteca colony in Tamaulipas. Poorbaugh was one of the several large investors in southern Vera Cruz.

Today's hearing was expected to bring out further testimony that widespread banditry and lawlessness prevails among Mexican federal troops as well as among the "outlaws."

RELATIVES QUIT HUNT FOR JEANNE A. DE KAY

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Relatives today gave up active search for Jeanne Anna De Kay, who disappeared from the Hull House on the night of December 31. They stated they had used every means to find trace of the girl, without success. Miss De Kay came to Chicago from Lucerne, Switzerland, where her wealthy parents reside, to take up social welfare work.

LEADER OF JENKINS' KIDNAPERS CAPTURED

NEW YORK, Jan. 16.—Caciano Mendez, one of the leaders of the Cordoba bandits who abducted William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, has been captured, according to a dispatch from that city tonight.

Mexican authorities, reporting the arrest, declared Mendez possesses important evidence supporting the charges against Jenkins.

EXTRAVAGANT FEASTS, DANCING ON RIVIERA

NICE, Jan. 16.—Feasting and dancing is absorbing the attention of Riviera this season. The necessities of life are not abundant and there is an actual shortage of sugar, milk and coal, but pate de foie gras, truffles, grain fed fowls and lobster abound. Everything that is luxurious and superfluous is plentiful. In the absence of fuel, visitors are keeping themselves warm by tangoing and fox trotting. Meanwhile the cost of living continues to soar.

LANE SAYS U. S. MUST STOP WASTE OF GAS

WASHINGTON, Jan. 16.—Warning that the Government sooner or later must take hold of the country's natural gas resources, unless concerted effort is made to curtail present enormous waste, was given by Secretary Lane today at a conference called to consider the problem.

Mr. Lane declared more than two-thirds of the natural gas taken from wells is wasted, besides enormous waste in the fields. This, he said, must be remedied before the "conscience of the community is awakened" to force Government control.

REGINALD DE KOVEN DEAD
CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Reginald De Koven, noted composer, died here today following a stroke of apoplexy. De Koven came to Chicago recently to attend the presentation of his opera, "Rip Van Winkle" by the Chicago Grand Opera Company.

Republican Women Take Big Interest In Politics

Mrs. John G. South and Miss Mary Garrett Hay

Convention Delegates Are Included In Largest Party Affairs

CHICAGO, Jan. 16.—Two of the foremost women in Republican political circles in the United States today are Mrs. John G. South and Miss Mary Garrett Hay. Both were delegates recently at the convention of the Republican National Women's Committee held in Chicago and they also attended a banquet of Republicans recently in San Francisco in company with Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

Mrs. South is chairman of the women's division and Miss Hay is chairman of the executive committee. Both have been ardent workers for suffrage for years and since obtaining their votes both have been prominently identified with the Republican party and have taken part in many of the largest party gatherings.

FIGHT FOR NEW WILL CONTINUE ON JURY'S NOTE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 16.—The fight for the freedom of Harry S. New, convicted yesterday of murder in the second degree, is not yet over. In fact, LeCompte Davis, chief of New's counsel, today indicated that it may be just getting started.

Davis announced the case would be appealed and the fight would now center along two lines.

The first arm of the defense campaign will be a motion for a new trial, which will be made when New comes up for sentence Monday, and if it is refused, there will be an appeal to the state supreme court.

The second phase of the defense plan will be an effort to get New out of jail on bail, pending either a new trial or a decision on the appeal. New being convicted of second degree murder which is a bailable offense, can, as a general proposition, be admitted to bail if the court sees fit.

The fight for New's liberty will be based largely on a note which the jury handed to the judge after the verdict was returned. It was marked, "To the court and not for the press," and said that the jury requested the judge to have New first confined to "some institution" for observation as to his sanity and for the court to determine when he should be removed from such an institution.

The defense holds this note shows the jury had a reasonable doubt as to New's sanity and that the verdict of second degree murder did not represent the true opinion of the jury but was returned on a basis of expediency.

District Attorney Woolwine expressed confidence that an appeal would fail.

Last night New, his mother and Miss Edna Clancy, his half sister, visited and were happy at the county jail.

"I have faith that God will bring justice and truth will prevail," said his mother.

Attorney Davis said he had telegraphed the result of the trial to United States New at Washington and an answer had been received.

The contents of the answer were not made public but it is known a fight for an appeal has been financed.

WILL SEND OUT WINE ON OPTION CONTRACT

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 16.—Thousands of gallons of wines will be distributed here today under the "option contract" plan according to an announcement made last night by Attorney Theodore A. Bell, counsel for California winemakers.

Advices have been received from Washington stating the belief that there is nothing illegal in the optional form of sale under which many thousands of gallons have been distributed since the Volstead law went into effect. The contract calls for "immediate" delivery of wine to the holder of the contract with the stipulation that it be returned at the "option of the original owner."

BANDITS KILL, WOUND POLICEMEN IN FIGHT
NORTH PLATTE, Neb., Jan. 16.—Chief of Police C. McComber, 58, was shot and killed and Policeman George W. Rodgers, 60, fatally wounded in a gunfight with two Mexican gunmen last night.

The policemen were attempting to arrest the Mexicans as suspicious characters when they suddenly started shooting.

Abolition of naval decorations was favored by Admiral Sims, who appeared before a senate naval affairs sub-committee today as the first witness in the probe of the naval awards controversy. The controversy was brought on by publication of a letter from Sims to Secretary of the Navy Daniels criticizing Daniels' choice of officers who were to receive awards.

BOURGEOIS NEW HEAD OUTLINES PLANS

Work of Organization Will Be Foundation for New Era, He Says

HOPES UNITED STATES WILL BECOME MEMBER

Lloyd George, Earl Curzon and Viscount Grey Are Late Arrivals

PARIS, Jan. 16.—The League of Nations—without American membership or representation—took its place as a world institution today.

It came into being in a solemn inaugural meeting of the league's supreme council in the historic "clock room" of the French foreign office. It was the same spot where the league idea was born 11 months ago.

Leon Bourgeois, president of the French senate, was elected permanent president.

Neither Ambassador Wallace nor any subordinate American official was present. Each speaker regretfully referred to the fact. The only American to watch the hands of the famous great clock sweep through the hour in which the great powers formally launched their effort to place international affairs on a basis of justice and co-operation, were the newspapermen.

The meeting began at 10:35 a. m. It adjourned at 11:50. Referring to America's absence, President Bourgeois in his opening address declared the council's work cannot assume "that definite character and that particular force which should be associated with our work," until the United States becomes a member of the league.

Earl Curzon Speaks
Bourgeois delivered the opening address followed by Earl Curzon of Great Britain, secretary of state for foreign affairs.

Immediately after the session convened Bourgeois was elected temporary president.

"The league of nations has been allotted several distinct tasks," President Bourgeois said in his opening address. First is practical execution of the clauses of the treaty of Versailles.

"Then the constitution provides international organizations for regulation of economic and social life that will form the foundations for the new era now opening. Finally, there is the international regulation of labor conditions to insure welfare of the workers and social peace towards which already much has been accomplished."

The president then took up the questions which the council must settle immediately under terms of the peace treaty and the league covenant.

"Organization of the league will not be complete until an assembly of all states comes together," Bourgeois continued. Among the states invited to join within two months after the treaty of peace became effective, Spain, Argentina, Paraguay, Chile and Persia already have accepted.

"Even if the league thus remains incomplete until a later date today's meeting nevertheless bears the character of a first solemn act."

Birth of New World
"Today will go down in history as the date of the birth of the new world. This decision is to be taken today in the name of the states adhering to the covenant of the league. It will be the first decree of all free nations leaguely themselves together for the first time in the history of the world to substitute right for might."

Referring to the failure of the United States to accept the league, Bourgeois said:

"The task of presiding at this meeting and inauguration of the greatest of international institutions should have fallen to President Wilson."

"We respect the reasons which still delay the decision of our Washington friends, but we express hope these soon will be overcome and a representative of the United States will occupy a place amongst us."

"The council's work will then as-

Raising of Bees Is Lucrative Business for Women, Claimed

OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 16—Raising of bees is a lucrative business for women.

Mrs. F. B. Richardson of Hughson, Calif., in an address to Mills College students on "Women in Bee Culture" emphasized the increasing opportunities for women in the bee business. She cited many instances of women who, with no training, had in four or five years learned and earned enough while studying the profession and working with experts, to establish their own apiaries. The raising of queen bees, she said, is an especially lucrative business for women as there is always a ready sale for the queens and the work is light, requiring little heavy lifting of colony hives.

Mrs. Richardson, herself a practical beekeeper, urged students to study bee culture during their summer vacations and assured them that in four summers they could get enough knowledge to become independent in business.

Bull, Kiddies and Airdale Dog Cause Great Excitement

A wandering bull which—or who, which ever is preferred—was responsible for a lively scattering of a crowd of young folks on roller skates in Seventeenth street, near Valencia, was arrested by members of the city police today.

The bull was out, taking the air. Suddenly his bovine meditations was disturbed by the appearance of an Airedale dog which—or who, which ever is preferred—began nipping at his heels.

Incidentally, the Airedale was being egged on in his nipping by sundry small boys, who viewed the proceedings with exceeding delight. The nipping made the bull uncomfortable, however. Contrary to the usual custom of his kind, he did not turn on his tormentor, but broke into a run. He made straight for the spot where another crowd of youngsters was cutting capers on roller skates.

There was an immediate scattering of young people. With a tremendous clattering, caused by numbers of skates hitting, but not rolling over the pavement, the kiddies dashed to safety on the nearest available front porches.

The bull was taken into custody today in an orchard near Seventeenth and C Streets.

Executive Committee for Endowed Hospital Has Been Appointed

Getting down to concrete action in its movement to secure an endowed hospital for Santa Ana, the Chamber of Commerce has appointed an executive committee to arrange the details and carry out plans for raising funds for the purpose. The committee is composed of Judge Z. B. West, chairman, Santa Ana; Dr. Willa Howe-Waffle, Santa Ana; Mrs. S. E. Stubby, Tustin; Rev. A. T. O'Rear, Santa Ana and E. B. Collier, of Orange, manager of the Central Lemon Association at Villa Park. The committee will meet at the call of the chairman.

The Chamber of Commerce is taking action in an effort to secure an endowed hospital at the request of a number of citizens, who feel that the time has come when Santa Ana should have a modern and up-to-date institution free from private ownership and control.

From the aspect of the value of such a hospital to the city of Santa Ana, the Chamber of Commerce has undertaken the work of raising the finances. It is conceded that good hospital equipment is an important factor in inducing location by people who want to be in a community where they would be assured of the best facilities should they at any time become seriously ill.

Straying Bull Pup With 'Bo' Leaning Jailed as Vagrant

"There he goes!"

The "he" in question was Mac, a bull pup. The man who made the exclamation was Chris Stafford, a trusty at the county jail.

Mac was not only going, he was gone. He left Sycamore street, and trotted exuberantly east on Church street, in the direction of Main. It happened today.

Deputy Sheriff Charles Holbrook heard Stafford's cry of "There he goes," jumped into a Ford and gave chase to the migratory Mac.

The pup finally was taken into custody and lodged temporarily in jail, charged with vagrancy. Thereupon Holbrook telephoned to Attorney William P. Webb of Anaheim, Mac's owner. Webb was in Santa Ana this morning, and while here his bull pup made his getaway. The attorney from the Mother Colony told Stafford he was very anxious to have Mac apprehended. So Stafford was on the lookout.

Holbrook first saw Mac in a local stationery store. At the time Holbrook wondered what Mac was doing, wandering around without any apparent owner. Returning to the jail, Holbrook was told of the circumstances by Stafford.

Why Mac decided to take a stroll past the county jail is a mystery—unless it was in a spirit of sheer bravado.

Married at San Bernardino
William Ray Ford of this city was married in San Bernardino Wednesday evening to Miss Florence Myrtle Cary, the ceremony being said by Rev. L. J. Millikan at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church.

The groom's father, D. E. Ford, of Santa Ana, and the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cary, of Fifth street, San Bernardino, were present.

The pretty bride wore a blue silk and chiffon frock, with a blue hat.

The young people are at present staying at the home of the groom's father at Fairview but hope to find accommodations in this city soon.

Mr. Ford recently bought the feed and fuel store owned by R. R. Smith, 408 North Birch street.

Mrs. Atkins Recovers Health and Makes Strong Statement
For Tanlac

"Tanalac has certainly proved what it can do by restoring me to health and I am recommending it to my friends and customers," was the statement made recently by Mrs. Minnie Atkins, who is the proprietor of Mothers' Place, a well-known restaurant at 129 West Broadway, San Diego, Cal.

"About a year ago my health began to fail me and I got in a terribly weakened, run-down condition," continued Mrs. Atkins. "I had almost no appetite at all and what little I forced myself to eat did me more harm than good, and all the time I felt so weak and tired that it was all I could do to keep the place going."

"After I had been in this condition several weeks, the clerk in the hotel next door told me about Tanlac and advised me to give it a trial. Well, it was no time after I began taking it before I was feeling better and by the time I had finished my second bottle my appetite had come back, I could digest everything I ate perfectly and was feeling just as fine as ever."

"I was in the very best of health until about three months ago, when I had a bad case of the influenza and I was in bed a week and unable to attend to my work for two weeks or more. I was left in such a weakened condition that I was hardly able to get across the floor and had pains and aches all over my body. I lost my appetite again and was troubled so with indigestion that nearly everything I ate or drank disagreed with me."

"I sent for Tanlac again and took two more bottles and it did just like it had done a year before and it was no time before I was able to do my work with as much ease as ever and without getting tired or worn out. I can eat anything I please without any bad effects at all and the pains all left me and I am never troubled in any way. Tanlac is certainly a fine medicine and it is always a pleasure to me to recommend it whenever I get a chance."

Tanalac is sold in Santa Ana by Rowley Drug Co., in Fullerton by G. W. Finch, in La Habra by R. H. Hilbert, in Huntington Beach by Riddinger's Mission Pharmacy, in Placentia by A. J. ARCH BEACH HOUSE
INVOLVED IN SUIT

A sheriff's sale of a house and lot at Arch Beach, to satisfy an alleged claim of $944.40 against C. A. Jones, a contractor; Edith M. Loop, Helena A. Brereton and others, will be bought by the Laguna Beach Lumber company, through a suit for the foreclosure of a mechanics lien, which was on file today in superior court. It was recited in the complaint that on August 20, last Jones entered into a contract with the plaintiff and that pursuant to this contract three deliveries of lumber and other supplies were made by the lumber concern. The alleged value of the lumber so delivered was $944.40, the plaintiff alleges. No part of this sum has been paid, it is alleged. All the defendants save Helena A. Brereton and Edith M. Loop claim an interest in the house and lot in question, but the plaintiff has a prior claim, it was set forth.

ANAHEIM B. OF HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

ANAHEIM, Jan. 16.—With an attendance of more than a hundred enthusiastic men and women boosters, the Anaheim Board of Trade held its annual banquet and meeting at the Masonic Temple, last night, with C. E. Holcomb, president of the First National Bank, as toastmaster.

The supper, which included such items as oyster cocktail, fruit salad, roast pork and roast veal, dressing, plum pudding, etc., was prepared and served by the ladies of the Eastern Star, who added another laurel to their culinary accomplishments of the past. Mrs. H. Hansen was chairman of the kitchen committee, and was assisted by Mr. and Mrs. O. Feig, Mrs. L. Keuper, Mrs. M. Ives, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Metcalf and Mr. Dahlman. The dining room committee, headed by Mrs. Gene Adams included Mrs. Maud McCann, Mrs. Louise Dahlman, Mrs. Opal Brasler, Mrs. Eva Boyd, Miss Elizabeth Jessurun, Mrs. George Little, Mrs. Rebecca Hasson and Mrs. Blanche Daniels.

Interesting Talks Given
A half dozen interesting talks were given, all touching upon the progress and prosperity of Anaheim and Orange county, those on the program being D. W. Anderson, J. F. Walker, Rev. G. R. Messias, S. C. Hartman, Harry D. Riley, Franklin P. Steed and the Rev. Mr. Smeltzer.

Anderson talked on the housing problem and pointed out that this city is "up against it" for accommodations for many people who would like to become residents, but who cannot find a house to live in. Those with money, he said, should build houses, one or more, and thus help to relieve the situation, and at the same time getting a paying return on their investment, even at the present high cost of building. Anderson was roundly applauded when he declared Anaheim is one of the best towns on the Pacific coast.

Baseball Team an Asset
Riley, a baseball fan from away back, and manager of the new local club, talked on a winning baseball team as an asset to Anaheim. He started out by declaring the ladies of the Eastern Star are "some cooks." (Applause). He also agreed with Anderson that Anaheim "needs a lot of houses," and then entered into his subject, declaring the winning Anaheim ball club is a valuable asset to the community in more ways than one.

"Anaheim has already got a lot of good advertising from the ball team here," said Riley, "and people in all the towns roundabout, even as far south as San Diego, are talking about Anaheim and her winning team. Probably the most important thing about the team from the community standpoint is that it gets us wide publicity and gets people talking about Anaheim. But another thing of importance is that our young men are getting healthful exercise and everyone who attends the games is receiving lessons in good sportsmanship and are developing a greater love for the great American game."

Picks Anaheim as Live Town
J. F. Walker, the architect, said he picked his home here as he believes this is the liveliest town in Orange county, and that this is his home now and probably will be for all time. Walker said Anaheim's business buildings are the best for any town of similar size in the country, but that the Center street widening should be completed and a new city hall should be built. Referring to the forthcoming high school bond election, he declared too much bond money cannot be voted for educational purposes in a community that is growing like Anaheim.

Rev. G. R. Messias, in a witty talk, dwelt upon the intense loyalty to American ideals which has been brought about by the war, and told why this national loyalty is making the United States an even greater nation than before. He lauded the American Legion as an organization of young patriotic men, an instrument in God's hands to bring about a more intense loyalty than ever before. The war, he said, showed the solidarity of humankind the world over. Rev. Messias also announced the forthcoming drive for funds for Armenian and Syrian relief, and that the drive in Anaheim would be sponsored by the German Lutheran church and directed by its pastor, the Rev. Mr. Messias, aided by all the other ministers and churches in the city.

Wants Closer Co-Operation
An appeal for closer co-operation between the business men of the cities and those of the surrounding country (ranchers) was made by S. C. Hartman, pointing out that this is an age of co-operation, and that the true co-operation comes about when the businessmen of the towns are acquainted with and on familiar terms with the ranchers in the surrounding territory.

The farmer, Hartman said, is coming into his own and that those business men are wise who ally themselves with the business men of the country and meet him on an equal basis. Within ten years, Hartman said, the farmer and the man who labors will "walk on high ground" and will be the propelling power of the nation.

Urges Larger Membership
The Anaheim Board of Trade ought to have at least 500 thinking men and women as members, Franklin P. Steed, accountant of Santa Ana and Anaheim, said in a short talk, and referring to the fact that the organization now has only about 160 members. Steed said he wants to see things hum, and offered his personal services in any movement to make the organization better. Referring to the housing situation, he said he had been unable to find a house either in Santa Ana, Orange, Anaheim or Fullerton, and was still hanging on to his Glendale home until he can find a place to live in this county.

The last speaker was Rev. Smeltzer of the German Lutheran church, who made an appeal for moral and financial support in the Armenian relief drive, and announced a mass meeting to be held on January 27,

HE EXPECTS ANAHEIM, he said, to go "over the top" in this drive, as she has done in every other war and relief drive of the past two years.

ALLEGED BEATER OF
WIFE GETS 30 DAYS

Brooding over money matters, together with alleged intemperate use of intoxicants, was said to have been the cause of Charles A. Appeldorn, of 511 East Second street, being brought before Justice John B. Cox today on a charge of battery, preferred by Appeldorn's wife, Pearl Appeldorn. Justice Cox found Appeldorn guilty and sentenced him to thirty days in the county jail. Appeldorn also was found guilty of a charge of disturbing the peace, was brought by City Motor Officer F. R. Stewart. On this count Appeldorn was given an additional sentence of ten days in jail.

sume the definite character and that particular force which should be associated with our work."

Closing his address, the French leader said solemnly:

"With eyes fixed on the distant future, but with our feet on the solid ground of political and social relations, we will create a world in which this league can develop a spirit of justice and a desire for peace."

Lloyd-George Arrives
Premier Lloyd-George and Viscount Grey arrived late, entering the room some time after the ceremony had started.

President Bourgeois immediately recognized them, greeting Sir Edward as one of the fathers of the league. Gray replied he considered it the greatest honor to be present on the occasion of the league's organization.

Earl Curzon, who spoke following President Bourgeois, emphasized the necessity of doing away with the old secret diplomacy.

"The success of the international labor conference is a good augury for the future of the league," Curzon said. "It especially demonstrated the power of debate in one field of international action."

"The peoples of all countries now have learned foreign affairs are their vital concern and are demanding with ever increasing insistence that international obligations be not contracted behind their back."

"Their eyes have been opened to the necessity of co-operation between all nations, but they insist this co-operation be in the open."

"Another and more important result we may hope for it that the habit of mutual confidence will automatically cause armaments to disappear."

Curzon denied that the league implies "creation of superstate."

"The mere title league, should be sufficient to dispel this misconception," he said.

"The league will not interfere with nationalities," he said, "because it is upon nationhood that it rests."

In closing Curzon said he wished to "express my full concurrence with President Bourgeois' remarks relative to the United States."

"The decision must be her own," Curzon said, "but if the United States does not elect to take her place in the new council of nations that place will be vacant for her and I am sure a warm welcome will await her."

Terming the United States the "great friend of mankind." Signor Ferraris, minister of labor, expressed hope for early adhesion to the league of this "absent nation."

EASY FOR ORANGE CLUB

ORANGE, Jan. 16.—Orange high school basketball men handed the Santa Ana team an artistic lacing on the local court, scoring 67 points to Santa Ana's 12.

The Orange team was working well and had no trouble with Santa Ana. Keuchel, with 11 goals, Roberts, with 9, and Richards, with 6, were the main factors in the scoring. All members of the squad had a turn at it and all showed up well.

The flea weights or 110 pounders also clashed with Anaheim in a close game which Orange won, 15 to 14.

While the Orange team was doing things to the Santa Ana big club, the "Highlanders" of Santa Ana were dumping away with the honors in the game at Santa Ana with the T.N.T. Club, the score being 22 to 25. The players were:

Santa Ana—Harmon, forward; Jerome, forward; Raitt, center; Wilson, guard; Finley, guard.

Orange—Houts, forward; Wayne, forward; Granger, center; Fuller, guard; Warner, guard.

FEES ARE PROTESTED
$1,500,000 ESTATE
Harry Duffill, who was before Superior Judge West today in connection with settling up of the estate of the late Eugene A. Duffill, protested a demand made by Attorney Kemp, of the firm of Kemp, Mitchell and Silverberg, for $714 attorney fees. Attorney Kemp stated he had received only about $900 since the estate, said to be valued at $1,500,000, first came up for disposition in the local courts, several years ago.

The estate consists, in addition to other property outside of Orange county, of an orange ranch near Fullerton, originally appraised at $20,000, but has since grown in value to $60,000, it was stated. The court allowed Attorney Kemp's claim for $714 fees.

WE GOT ALONG
You know how it is—
The luxuries of yesterday are the necessities of today. It is so with human beings, and it is true with collections of human beings. It seems true of the United States government, having become accustomed to a thing, the government, like an ordinary human being, imagines it can't get along without it.
Harry B. Hunt, Washington newspaper correspondent, who has been investigating governmental expenditures, has run across all sorts of bureaus, sub-departments, commissions, all war trimmings, help-in-the-war accessories, all serving more or less efficiently during the war, and all exceedingly anxious to continue existing—and spending.
“But we got along without them before the war,” observes Hunt, “and perhaps could do so again.”
“Some of them must go, and most of them must suffer heavy reductions in their estimates for 1921,” predicts Hunt, “if Uncle Sam is to keep his outlay anywhere near his income.”
Whereupon, the Stockton Record says:
“Uncle Sam is like the fellow who feels the need for a couple of cars, a town house and a country home, but whose income cries, ‘Ouch!’ when he gets beyond the one car and the one home. The sensible fellow listens to that ‘Ouch!’ The fellow who finally lands in the bankrupt court doesn’t. Which is Uncle Sam going to emulate?”

PLAIN BUSINESS
Says Herbert Hoover
“I disagree emphatically with the statement being circulated by European propagandists both as to the volume of European financial needs from the United States and as to their suggestions that the great bulk of these needs cannot be met by ordinary commercial credits, and that therefore our treasury needs to be further drawn upon for new loans.”
If any one man knows the needs of Europe, it is Hoover. Some of the European peoples need food supplied at government credit over this winter, he says. Otherwise, no government assistance is necessary. What is needed is business credits from private firms here to private firms abroad.
“The American people are now finding $7,000,000 a month in charity for feeding three millions of children and fighting disease. If we contribute bread supply on government credit to these starving cities, plus business credits, we will be doing our share of world responsibility. If we extend this help, it should be upon consideration that the stronger nations in Europe will do their full part in many directions.”
“Most European statesmen naturally desire to please their people by borrowing from our government to revive prosperity over night, but this is not necessary.”
What he would like to see is the “70,000,000 people of prosperous nations who have not suffered in the war coming to aid in European relief.”
It is right and natural for prosperous, generous America to come to the aid of more unfortunate peoples who are suffering and in need. But if this aid is continued into a time when it is not needed, it but contributes to pauperization and lack of self-respect. It is just as foolish for us to extend government aid to European peoples able to take care of themselves as it is for housewives to feed tramps at back doors, thus enabling them to live lazily while their deserted families starve or become dependent upon public charity.
Business credits are needed abroad. But the need of government assistance is over. There is no occasion for America to minister to the idleness in which Bolshevism grows. What is needed is the stern dictum, “He that will not work, neither shall he eat.”

RAILROAD POLICY
The new national railroad policy is not yet determined. Certain big facts, however, have become clear, and are recognized by nearly everybody in public or private life who has given much thought to the subject.
For one thing, the railroads must be allowed to combine in larger units than formerly. For another, there must be no more private railroad. The Santa Ana Register is trying to harmonize these apparently contradictory ideas into a workable system.

It is taken for granted that the best features of government operation will be retained. The most obvious gains from government management have been in the standardization and simplification of work and equipment. These have been possible because of centralized control. They have at least paved the way for big savings and service-improvements.
It has been proposed by the railroad director that the railroads of the country be formed into several large groups for unit-operation. Someone else has proposed a dozen railroad groups, something like the twelve financial groups in our regional banking system.
Such railroad combines involve a big change from the old policy represented in the Sherman law.
They will be possible only because the railroads are no longer to be controlled by the irresponsible will of private capitalists. They are to be subject to the threefold control of capital, labor and government, the latter representing the public and seeing that the other two parties play fair with it and with each other.

Being Counted
Riverside Press
It gives one a sense of national importance to be approached by a census enumerator and stand up and be counted, and have one's life-history written down for whom it may concern. It makes one realize suddenly that he plays a part in the national scheme. It brings him into momentary touch with all the other members of this great nation. He feels himself, more fully than usual, an American. He may be an obscure citizen, but he is at least worth being included in the inventory. And he takes a satisfaction in filling just as much of the record as anybody else. This census enumeration is the great leveller. In it is real democracy. Every man, from president to street-sweeper, has one line, no more. So has every woman and every child.
This sense of importance, however, may give way to a more modest feeling, as the citizen realizes how many of him there are. He is but one in perhaps 110,000,000. Nobody can grasp that fact. Such numbers are overpowering. They dwarf and stifle the individual who contemplates them.
Wherefore, why contemplate them? It is the individual, after all, that counts—for himself and for his country. Every person is, for himself, the center of the world. And possibly this is not mere egotism. Possibly there are really as many centers to the universe as there are people, to think about it. And certainly the glory of a nation rests on its individual citizens rather than its numbers. How much greater was little Athens with its few thousand citizens who lived individual lives and played their eager, original, creative parts in the world, than vast China, with its stereotyped millions!

It is natural to take pride in numbers, but it is a rather silly business, particularly where nations are concerned. It is a false grandeur that is gained from being one of many. The thing that counts is to be a real person, an individual distinguished from the many by self-determined thought and action. Everything comes back to that. And one citizen may be as great as millions, because he withstands them when they are wrong, or speaks for them when they are right.

Politics Improved
Pasadena Star-News
There has been vast improvement in political methods in this country in the last three decades. In truth, politics has been so much bettered that it scarcely resembles its former self. Corruption has been reduced to the minimum. Bribery is exceptional, where once it was common. Bossism is on the wane. Political machines have been scrapped, for the most part. The people have come into larger participation in political activities. Politicians are not the commanding figures they once were. Primaries have succeeded clique-controlled conventions.
There is less abuse in politics than formerly. Candidates and parties must win on their merits, and not by defaming the opposing candidate or party. Reason rules, rather than prejudice and passion. Political issues are decided by independent thought on the part of the individual voter. All this is for the betterment of government and for the general good of the country.

Opposites
San Bernardino Index
Bolshevism is defined by Bolsheviks as the “dictatorship of the proletariat.” There is no dispute about that. Bolshevism means that a minority of the people rule and compel obedience from all others. There is no dispute about that.
Bolshevism constitutes a philosophy of government. Whatever the facts of day to day life in Petrograd or Moscow, or among the peasants of Russia, may be has nothing to do with the definition of Bolshevism. Those facts constitute another story. Bolshevism itself involves a theory of government.
Bolshevism is something that will not mix with democracy. The United States is a land of democracy—imperfect in many ways, but still democracy. Democracy means the dictatorship of NOBODY. The theory of democracy is an equal voice for every person and an equal opportunity.
Bolshevism and democracy are opposites. There isn't any doubt about it. No American can be in doubt when it comes to deciding about Bolshevism.
Bolshevism would overthrow and destroy all such governments as ours. There is the definite statement of Bolshevism itself.
Most folks don't have to touch a bright, red iron to find out that it burns.

Democratic Possibilities
Literary Digest.
The National Tennessee (Dem.) made a poll of southern Democratic newspapers last fall on the question of the renomination of Mr. Wilson; 60 per cent said “No;” 20 per cent said “Yes;” the others qualified their answers or refused to state their position. The Macon Telegraph has declared that “Woodrow Wilson can't carry the state of Georgia for a third term.” The influential New York World also argues against a third term for the president. “If he does run,” says the Lancaster Examiner (Rep.), “there are many Republicans who will welcome such a fight,” but the Evansville Courier (Dem.) feels certain that “President Wilson will crown his life work by refusing a third term.” A careful summing up of the assets and liabilities of the most prominently mentioned Democratic candidates appears in the Richmond News-Leader. Says this Democratic newspaper, which is certain that the president will not consider being a candidate:
“Of cabinet officers, the strongest, beyond question is Secretary Lane, who unfortunately is barred by his Canadian birth from being president.
“Mr. Baker is a far more powerful man than many suspect, but as he has to bear the responsibility for the inevitable wastes and blunders of the army organization, he will hardly be an available candidate.
“Josephus Daniels has made a remarkable record as secretary of the navy, stood the test of the war magnificently, and has a great fund of common sense, but he has the active hostility of the fast element in the navy, comes from a state that is unalterably Democratic, is looked down upon by certain ‘interests’ as the proprietor of a small paper, and will not be accepted by the country at half his worth.
“Mitchell Palmer is gaining in influence in some quarters, but is bringing down upon his head the wrath of the labor world, nor has he yet shown any deep grasp of problems or any long vision. He is a capable organizer and has many qualities that appeal to those who admired Roosevelt, but he probably came too late and at too critical a time to make him a strong candidate next year.

“Mr. McAdoo, of course, is assumed to be an active aspirant and can command a certain following. But some of his characteristics do not appeal to the public, and his administration of the railways have aroused the profound antipathy of financial interests. He is blamed for yielding to the railway brotherhoods and he can hardly overcome that handicap. Incidentally, if he had not been railway administrator, the chances are overwhelming that he would be the nominee almost without opposition, for his work in the treasury department was remarkable.
“Beyond the range of cabinet officers, past and present, the Democrats have numbers of men who are superior to any the Republicans are likely to present, but of this abundant timber much is ‘green.’ Oscar Underwood would be a strong probability but for his stand upon the liquor question, and even here, by a revulsion of feeling in the states where prohibition became effective by federal statute, he may be acceptable. Of the state governors, the strongest available Democrat and a man who looms large upon the careful view is Governor James M. Cox of Ohio. He comes, as does Harding, from an important state, he is the strongest Democrat in the state (Baker not excepted), and he combines tact and experience with undeniable courage and initiative.”

NEWFOUNDLAND WAVES HURL FISH ON BEACH
HALIFAX, Jan. 15.—Reports arriving here from Newfoundland tell of havoc wrought along that coast by the winter gales and seas. Highest waves in years were recorded reaching at Little Harbor Head at one time to the 200-foot high tower of the lighthouse, encasing it in 9 1/2 inches of ice. The keeper had to lower himself from the top window to chop away the heavy casing before he could restore the light service. At Bateau Cove a 200-pound wedge anchor was swept away. The entire Newfoundland coast is strewn with lobsters, clams and fish tossed up by the seas.

* * * * *
This is one of a series of authoritative articles prepared by the bureau of internal revenue at Washington, D. C. They are of informative value to every single person in the United States whose net income for 1919 was $1000 or more and every married person and head of a family whose net income was $2000 or more. The taxpayer is told how to make out his income-tax form, when and where to file it, and when and where to pay the tax. Deductions and exemptions to which the taxpayer is entitled are shown, and special attention directed to changes in the rates.

ARTICLE NO. 5
The man or woman whose income is from salary or wages has several things to consider in making out his or her income tax return. The full amount received for personal services must be returned as gross income. Direct expenses incurred in earning his compensation, however, are allowable deductions. For example, a traveling man selling on commission may deduct his railroad fare and amounts paid for hire of vehicles in calling on his customers as a “business expense,” but not his hotel board, which is a personal or living expense.
Salaries must be reported as income for the year in which they are received, regardless of when they are earned. Thus, a man who is paid on the 5th of the month and received his salary for the month of December, 1918, on January 5, 1919, will include the amount in his return for 1919. His salary for December, 1919, which is not received until January 5, 1920, need not be included in his 1919 income, although it was entirely earned during that year.
Bonuses Must Be Reported
A salary or commission credited to an account and subject to withdrawal must be included as income. Bonuses or any form of profit sharing must be included, since they are additional compensation for services.

A Christmas gift, or other present from an employer is not taxable. Compensation for personal service may be paid for partly in cash and partly in board and lodging. In this event, a fair value must be placed upon the room and meals, and the amount reported as income by the employee.
Salaries of officers and employees of a state, county, or municipal government are exempt from taxation. The exemption does not extend to Federal employees and employees of the government of the District of Columbia.
Compensation for personal services paid to directors and trustees of a corporation or society which is exempt from taxation is taxable income to the recipients. Witnesses in law suits are not employees of a state, and the fees received by such witnesses are subject to taxation.
Tips are Taxable
Tips to porters, waiters, etc., are not regarded as a gift but as compensation for services rendered, and must be included in the returns of persons by whom received.
Money paid under a marriage settlement is a gift, and not taxable. Neither alimony nor allowance based on a separation is taxable income, though if such funds are invested the income derived from such sources must be reported for taxation.

WELLER TO TAKE OVER SAN DIEGO NAVY WORK
SAN DIEGO, Jan. 16.—With the arrival here next week of Rear Admiral Rodger Weller, assigned to the San Diego naval base, this port will be classed the same as Mare Island and Puget Sound naval bases. Admiral Weller will have full charge of the North Island navy aviation school, the marine brigade post, the wireless stations, the navy headquarters in La Playa, and all other navy activities, including the naval training school on which work is expected to start soon.

Gleanings
We are warned by the San Diego Union to get ready to pay the limit for eggs—a California hen recently was insured for $5000.
The man who used to complain because the bartender couldn't produce his favorite brand of liquor is now pretty well satisfied with any old kind.
It Can't Be Done
“Wanted—Nice room, by single man of moral habits with a small family. Address Particular.”—Lexington (Ky.) Leader.
C. M. Jackson of San Francisco, declares that the fellow who treats his wife meanest while they are living together always sues the other man for heaviest damages when her affections are alienated.
This Leap Year proposal stuff seems to be the bunk. The Office Grouch complains that he has received only one, so far, and that was from an old maid on the other side of the 50 mark.—San Diego Union.

If You Are Going to Build We Want To Help You

This store is particularly well equipped to furnish the builder's hardware and install the plumbing and heating systems in the new houses that Orange County is building.
We do not believe there is any shop in the country that has a finer line or greater assortment of plumbing materials and fixtures.
NOTHING IS TOO GOOD FOR OUR CUSTOMERS
We keep strictly in touch with modern progress in such matters. From the bath tub and water heater down to door hinges we present the modern idea and the quality of these things we offer is unquestionable.
We KNOW that no firm will work harder or take more pains to see that everything is exactly right. We employ a corps of expert plumbers, thereby getting the work done promptly. Talk to us about it.
A WONDERFUL HEATING SYSTEM
There is no question about the Magic Way being the world's most scientific and most efficient heating system. Less fuel, less upkeep, more comfort and the minimum of trouble. The best thing to do is to come here and get the names of a number of Santa Ana home owners who are using this wonderful system. They'll tell you all about it and we'll be satisfied to abide by their decision.
Drop in and talk these things over. We'll tell you the truth about the goods we handle and help you in every way to make your equipment the best possible for the money you spend.

Tustin Twelve Meets

The monthly meeting of the Tus-tin Twelve was held Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. S. House, Lyon street.

The afternoon was enjoyably spent with needlework and social chat.
The glow of a cheerful fire in the open fireplace added a charm to the pleasant sitting room.

Mrs. Chas. Johnson and Mrs. John Sauters entertained with songs, accompanied on the piano by Mrs.
Mueller. A delicious two-course luncheon was served later in the afternoon. The ladies present were Mrs. Chas. Sauters, Mrs. John Sauters,
Mrs. Fred Morehead, Mrs. Albert
Fuller, Mrs. John Gould, Mrs. Otis
Bridgeford, Mrs. Mueller, Mrs. C. O.
Artz, Mrs. Chas. Johnson, Mrs. G.
W. Pollard, Mrs. S. W. Suddaby, and the hostess, Mrs. House.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Charles Johnson.

Procter Date Fixed

Harold Procter, tenor, who is to be the artist for the January program of the Musical Association, has informed Mr. Gustlin, president, that he can appear here on Monday evening, the 26th of this month.

Mr. Procter is filling a great many engagements in Southern California since his recent return from a long tour with the Redpath Lyceum bureau, on which tour he won many honors and flattering press notices.

As the association presented two artists during September instead of one, Master Tomford Harris, boy pianist, and Mme. Ruzena Spottle, contralto, and since four programs besides the one in January are yet to be arranged for, Mr. Procter has generously offered to come for a fee much smaller than his customary one and Mr. Gustlin has tendered his services as accompanist for the evening in order that the same high-class programs may feature the balance of the season's offerings as in the past.

Season tickets may yet be had from Harry Hansen at the First National Bank or from the high school office. There are both adult and student rates for season tickets and no single tickets are available.
The concert will be held in the auditorium of the First Methodist church a week from next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, sharp.

LADY NIGHT

Lady Night has hands so light,
And beside my bed she lingers,
Stroking me with snowy
fingers,
Cool as streams, lest my dreams
Bring my soul afright.

Lady Night has lips so sweet,
And, beside my curtain bend-
ing,
Still consoling, still befriend-
ing,
Lullabies, soft as sighs,
Low doth she repeat.

Lady Night has eyes so deep,
And, besides my pillow lean-
ing,
Thrilling me with mystic meaning,
Starry rays of her gaze
Glimmer through my sleep.

Hearken! In the dusky gloom Rustling silken robes enwind
her,
And she gently draws behind
her
Grief and pain, on her train.
When she leaves the room,

The installation was followed by several talks on the "Good of the order." The talk by Mrs. Neidig was especially enjoyed, as she is always a welcome visitor.
Refreshments and dancing closed
the evening's pleasure.

Surprise Party.

A very pleasant surprise party was given for Eugene Griset of Greenville last evening by his Y. M.
C. A. group of which he has been the leader for over three years. The boys made it a combination entertainment for fathers, mothers, sisters and brothers. The boys had planned so well that they succeeded in getting everybody into the house and lights on before Mr. Griset was aware of the fact that anyone was around but his family. After hearty greetings the evening was spent in games and general stunts superintended by Mrs. Griset who had a goodly supply of games at hand.

Later refreshments of ice cream and cake were served to capacity desire, appealing especially to the younger boys that were there. Later
W. F. Kroener, the County "Y" secretary, gave a talk upon the work of the County Y. M. C. A. and the aims of the organization to make strong Christian men of the boys. He was followed by Leslie Lockett, president of the Moonlight Club, Mr. Griset's Y group, who gave a short, splendid speech of appreciation of the club for the work Mr. Griset had done for it and as an expression of that appreciation Lockett presented him with a beautiful gold Waterman Ideal fountain pen.

Those present were members of the Moonlight Club, Leslie Lockett, president; Gale Harmon, Lloyd Redmond, Russell Manderscheid, Dewey Planckon, Clyde Planckon, John
Planckon, H. A. Mashburn, Lawrence Harmon and Walter McClain; and structive talk on "School Lunches,"

Mrs. P. T. Preble at Tustin, Miss

Presbyterian Sunday school.

A lively evening was enjoyed by the young people with various games and music.

The Prebles also entertained, as house guests at the week-end, Miss Mabel Lucy and Kenneth Lucy on Covina, and Miss Mina Eells, Dr. J.
A. Lingenfelter, and Dr. Steiner of Los Angeles.

Coreopsis Club Meeting

The members of the Coreopsis

long vacation on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. C.
Lambert, and those who were present enjoyed the afternoon of fancy work and social chat.

The hostess served dainty refreshments and part of the time was passed pleasantly with Victrola music. Mrs. H. E. Matthews and Mrs.
Penlon Matthews were present, and Mrs. Dick Morton, Mrs. Alton Alderman and Mrs. Claud Norton. Mrs.

Re-elect Its Officers

Pleased with the work done by its staff of efficient officers during the past year, the members of St. Joseph's Altar Society, at a very largely attended meeting yesterday afternoon, elected its officers unanimously for the year 1920.

The meeting was held at the beautiful and spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klatt at 301 East Washington avenue, their daughter, Miss Barbara Klatt, being the president of the society. The spacious rooms were bright with vari-colored flowers.

The officers re-elected are: Miss Klatt, president; Mrs. Horace Fine, vice-president; Mrs. Charles Bevis, secretary; Mrs. Charles Davis, treasurer.

It was decided to raise the dues in order to cover current expenses and five new members were received, including Mmes. Wilde, Hamilton, Knox, Lester and Groover. The society membership roll is being greatly increased in number.

During a social hour, the hostess, assisted by her daughters, Misses Barbara, Bertha and Clara and Mrs.
Klatt, served delicious refreshments to the forty ladies present.
Mrs. Horace Fine, Mrs. George Young and Mrs. Roy Browning will be hostesses at the next meeting in two weeks at Knights of Columbus hall.

noon dinner for the Veterans. Mr.
Kate Bradford and Mrs. Isabelle Tucker will be the hostesses. Meet at 624 French street.

All Confederate Veterans and Sons of Veterans are cordially invited.

At Riverside Meeting.

At Riverside yesterday board members and presidents of the southern district California Federation of Women's Clubs passed a resolution urging that the state president confer with Dr. Aurelia Reinhardt, chairman of the program committee of the conference of social agencies to be held at Riverside in May, regarding the possibility of changing either the date of the annual convention of the state club federation or that of the social agencies. At present the conflict of dates—both organizations are scheduled to hold their conventions in the first week of May—is deeply deplored by the club women. They feel that the social agencies conference to be held in Riverside will be of exceptional value, and they are also anxious to attend the convention of the state club federation. It is their hope that a reconciliation of dates may be effected.

A resolution was also passed recommending Mrs. S. U. Stewart and Mrs. Rader of San Bernardino for the fine work they did in helping secure for Southern California the farm school for the state university.

In the afternoon, Mrs. H. E. De Nyse was given a portion of the program hour and she presented the milk problem to the state. Mr. J. H.
Woodworth, county home demonstration agent, and R. N. Wilson, farm advisor, both of Riverside county, spoke illuminatingly on the food value of milk and the cost of its production.

Mrs. A. J. Lawton of Santa Ana, president of the women's legislative council, outlined the proposed work of that organization and urged the whole-hearted co-operation of the club women of the southern district.
Chairmen of the various departments gave their reports and progress in every line of work was reported.

A social hour was enjoyed during the noon hour and added enjoyment was given by the organ recital by Newell Parker.

Those attending from Santa Ana were Mrs. A. J. Lawton, Mrs. C. F.
Croze and Mrs. Terry Stephenson.

Organizing at Riverside.

Riverside Enterprise—Mrs. A. J.
Lawton of Santa Ana, president of the Woman's Legislative council, one of the most influential women's organizations of the state, is in Riverside, and is organizing Riverside for unified work in the legislative council. The purpose of the council is to effect organization of the women of the state for furthering of legislation favorable to, or a change of laws concerning women and children.

Mrs. Lawton will spend the day in confering with prominent Riverside women, concerning the appointment of a county chairman for Riverside.
She will return to this city the third of next month, to superintend final organization. San Diego, Los Angeles and San Bernardino county chairmen have already been named.
Mrs. J. H. Schreve to serve San Diego county, Mrs. Emma Livingston Reed, Los Angeles, and Mrs. S. U.
Stewart of Del Rosa, San Bernardino.

These chairmen will name their own county sub-chairmen, who will help form the state standing committee. These chairmen will be the heads of the publicity, speaker, membership, literature and finance committees.

Entertain At Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Williams were centered with violets and white hy-ner, J. C. Burke, Raymond Mayer

doctor here but his medicine did me no good. The sore
got worse right

FARM SCHOOL PURCHASES RATIFIED

Riverside Enterprise: The regents of the University of California yesterday announced at Berkeley that they had ratified the payment of $20,000 toward the purchase price on 300 acres of the Gage estate east of the city, to be used for farm school purposes by the university. This was authorized in an act of the last legislature and comes as the result of many months of effort on the part of the people of Southern California to secure an institution for the South, similar in scope to the university's farm and school at Davis, with the idea in the minds of the people that it will give particular attention to the problems that are peculiar to the agricultural conditions of Southern California.

Is Just a Start
This first payment on the land is largely to hold it for the future uses of the state and is only a start toward the institution it is hoped may some day be planned here. There will have to be completed the purchase of the property, the erection of buildings and the organization of a faculty. In time, however, the institution should mean many hundreds of students to attend the school and it will attract much more of the attention of the university to Southern California.

Review of Effort
The effort to make the farm school a certainty was started by the people of San Bernardino county, particularly Mrs. Rader and Mrs. Stewart, leaders of the parent-teacher association of that county. They persisted in bringing the matter before the university authorities until a hearing was held in San Bernardino with President Benjamin Ide Wheeler and Dean Thomas Forsythe Hunt in attendance. All communities of Southern California endorsed the movement and a permanent committee with representatives in all parts of the South was formed, the women, led by Mrs. H. E. DeNyse and others, being particularly active.

First Year Fails
The first attempt to secure the farm school bill failed in the legislature. The committees remained watchful, however, and under the direction of the Riverside Chamber of Commerce secured the renewal of the support of the various communities. Senator S. C. Evans and Chester M. Kline assisted in getting members of the legislature to come to Riverside to view the site and impressed them into service for the movement, resulting in the passage of a bill locating the farm in Riverside county with the Gage tract in mind.

Make Examination
A careful examination of the situation was later made by the University of California board of regents committee and experts with the final approval announced yesterday.

Democrats Find Job Hard Arranging for National Convention

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Jan. 16.—California had no easy row to hoe when it secured the 1920 national convention for San Francisco, according to F. Ray Groves, secretary of the state Democratic Central Committee.

"The first difficulty we ran into was the question of transportation," he said, discussing the selection of San Francisco.

"We got that cleared up without very much trouble and then the question of hotel room bobbed up. Finally we found plenty of hotel space and the next thing that came across our path was the question of telegraph and telephone wires.

"It seemed we didn't have enough of them.

"That was a big problem and required lots of work, but it is a difficulty which has been overcome.

"As a result, the next big item of national political convention scheduled for this summer.

"Eugene B. Dockweiler and Chas. W. Fay, of San Francisco deserve the credit."

GOVERNOR PROCLAIMS THRIFT WEEK IN CAL.
SACRAMENTO, Jan. 16.—Gov. Stephens yesterday issued a thrift week proclamation as follows:

"Whereas, a systematic practice of putting aside a certain portion of one's income to provide for the future is one of the essentials to the highest development of citizenship; and

"Whereas, much of the individual hardship and suffering is due to lack of a judicious practice of thrift;

"Therefore, I, William D. Stephens, Governor of the State of California, do hereby set aside the week of January 17 to 24 as thrift week, and urge the citizens of this State to observe the week and participate in the activities as outlined day by day, making plans for the wisest method of using their incomes and to begin those habits of thrift that will ultimately provide for their future and secure the comfort and happiness of their loved ones.

"WILLIAM D. STEPHENS, Governor."

COMMITTEE FOR SALVATION AFTER GOOD ROADS IS TO MEET

D. Eymann Huff, president of the Associated Chambers of Commerce of Orange County, has issued a call for a meeting of the special committee appointed to outline the roads of Orange County that should be improved under the proposed county bond issue. The meeting will be held in the rooms of the Board of Supervisors at the court house, 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening, Jan. 22. This committee is composed of four men from each of the supervisory districts and the purpose of calling the representatives together is to further discuss the matter. It is conceded that the outlined roads cannot be improved under a bond issue that the people would vote, for the reason that such an issue would exhaust the credit of the county, so far as floating bonds are concerned. There will have to be concessions in all districts if the improvement of more highways under a county bond issue is to be made. Whether the committee can reach an amicable settlement of the problem is an open question, as in past conferences there have been evidences that none were willing to reduce the mileage in the different districts.

RIVERSIDE COUNTY'S COTTON ACREAGE BIG

With 28,000 acres of cotton planted in the Palo Verde valley, 2500 acres in the Coachella valley and 2500 acres in the Perris valley the 1920 cotton crop, under favorable conditions, will be worth $75,000,000, according to E. M. Fowler, leading cotton broker of the south, who, with a number of Southern California bankers and financiers, is assisting the ranchers in financing the great planting.

Perris will be a new cotton belt this year. Fred L. Hall, who was in Riverside last night attending the meeting of the Southern California Fair Association, stated that more than 2500 acres had been signed up and he believes the planting will reach as high as 3000 acres.

The capital stock has been placed at $25,000, divided into 25,000 shares of a par value of $1 each.

OPPORTUNITY'S BASE LINE IN EACH LIFE

"Salvation After Death" was the topic of Dr. Henry's sermon last evening. The text was Hebrews 9-27, "It is appointed unto man once for all to die, but after that the judgment." The minister said in part: "We talk glibly of the larger hope meaning thereby that men may have a second chance for salvation beyond the grave. If the Bible is to be accepted at its face value, such expectation is delusive and chimerical. If the tree fall toward the south or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth it shall be."

"Reformation beyond death is far less probable than here. In this life man begins with innocence, but of a life time. You can build a better ship out of new timber than out of an old hulk. "Moreover, all the restraints and constraints of mercy will be withdrawn in the great beyond. The righteousness will be ended. The associations will be more unwholesome in that great lazarette of the future. Hell will be a poor place for moral recovery. The soul graduates from the school of his earthly life and receives at death his diploma of destiny, bearing the signature of saian and enters at once the university of unending woe."

The doctrine that men are to have another chance in another world for repentance and faith contradicts the doctrine of present salvation. God says that today is the acceptable time.

"Men begin their career beyond the grave, where they left off here. The world does not believe in this doctrine or second chance. No sinner flatters himself with a future trial or hope. The saints may speculate about it, but sinners accept the doctrine of the text as a sad finality. Tonight the doctor will speak on "Spiritualism and the End of the Age." A great meeting is anticipated.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must keep your body free from poisonous waste. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effect. Take one nightly and note results. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually, 10c and 25c.

PRUNE AND APRICOT CRISIS ON JAN. 20

SAN JOSE, Jan. 16 — California prune and apricot growers must decide before January 20 whether they are ready to give sufficient support to the California Prune and Apricot Growers, Inc., their non-profit co-operative association, to guarantee its continuance as the growers' selling agency.

This is the final date the board of directors of the association has set for the signing of 20,000 additional acres of prunes and 6,000 of apricots which they have demanded before exercising the association's options on the growers' crops for 1920-21. Failure of the association to take up these options would mean the organization would go out of business.

In a last appeal to the prune and apricot growers of California to support the association H. G. Coykendall, general manager said yesterday:

"As the result of three years' operation the association has today a sales organization capable of obtaining a profitable sale of all the prunes and apricots that California can produce for many years to come. To insure the continuance of this sales agency it must have the support of a large majority of the prune and apricot growers of the state."

"I cannot conceive that the growers of this state will be so lacking in intelligence as to allow this organization, for which they have fought so long, to fail at this time through lack of co-operation. The decision, however, rests entirely with each individual grower of the state. The association is not bluffing. If the fair demands of our board of directors are not met, this association will go out of existence on January 20, 1920."

CITY FAILS TO FALL FOR RAINMAKING OFFER

SAN DIEGO, Jan. 15.—An offer from "Rainmaker" Charles Hatfield to fill the city's reservoirs for a price of one cent per 1000 gallons was given very grave consideration by the members of the city water commission yesterday afternoon—for the space of about one-tenth of a second.

Then the communication from the rainmaker's local business agent, F. A. Binney, and a contract that accompanied the offer, were "fled" without comment.

Mrs. McClain said that her husband had brought suit for divorce in the Los Angeles county courts, and that a demurrer interposed for her is now pending. In this action, the wife set forth in her answer, she intends to ask for a division of all the couple's community property. ## BIRTH REPORTS ARE NOT MADE PROMPTLY VEGELY

City Clerk Declares Some Physicians Lax in Rendering Data

That there is considerable laxity on the part of some physicians in promptly reporting births in Santa Ana was the declaration today of City Clerk E. L. Vegely.

It is required by law that when a baby is born the fact must be reported within 36 hours to the proper authorities. In the incorporated limits of Santa Ana, City Clerk Vegely is the one to whom the report must be made.

"I must make my combined report to the state board of health for any given month, by the fifth day of the succeeding month," said Vegely today. "Never a month passes but I must telephone to some physicians, asking them whether or not they have reported every birth occurring during the previous thirty days."

"Physicians who are careless in this regard cannot plead ignorance of the law, for I have sent copies of the regulations to all. It is a condition for which there is no excuse, and it should be remedied."

Gives Probable Reason
Vegely believes that one reason why births are not reported promptly is because few parents know within 36 hours after the birth of a child, what they intend to name the baby. The law requires that the child's name must be stated—not necessarily, however, at the time the fact of birth is reported.

If at the time births are reported within the required 36 hour period, the name of a child is not known, then provision is made for a supplemental report, stating the child's name. This supplement is to be attached to the initial report.

The number of babies born in the incorporated limits of Santa Ana last year was 235, according to Clerk Vegely's records. In 1918 there were 240 births recorded, in 1917 there were 279 and in 1916 there were 278.

In 1919 there were 5 Japanese babies born in the incorporated limits of Santa Ana. Vegely's records show. In 1918 there were 4, in 1917 there were 4 and in 1916 there were 5.

Births in 1917
The total number of births in Orange county during the year 1917 was 529, according to the records in the office of County Recorder Justine Whitney. In 1918 Miss Whitney was made registrar of births of a district outlined by the state board of health and which includes Santa Ana township, exclusive of the city of Santa Ana; Tustin township, San Juan township and one or two other sections.

In 1918 the number of births reported from this registration district was 238 and in 1919 the number reported was 249.

During the past two or three months registrars of vital statistics have been making reports of births to the county auditor, according to a new law which is now in effect. As concerns birth statistics, original reports must be sent in to the county recorder by registrars outside of incorporated cities and towns. Duplicate copies of reports made to registrars in incorporated cities and towns must be submitted to the county recorder. It is believed that under this system considerable confusion which attended the system formerly in effect will be obviated.

PASADENA WOULD KEEP EAST-WEST FOOTBALL

PASADENA, Cal., Jan. 16.—Pasadena and the men who have made the east-west football game held annually here, never will consent to the game being taken from Pasadena.

J. J. Mitchell, vice president of the Tournament of Roses Association which stages the big game, made that clear in a statement issued today.

He added, however, that the association probably would consent to permitting the eastern and western conferences, or possibly some other organizations, naming the teams for the big game.

There would be no objection whatever to having the western conference select the western contender, but it would be unjust and unfair to deprive the Tournament of Roses of the great feature it had labored unselfishly and without profit to establish.

A Bold Guess
"The man who pretended he wanted alcohol for his radiator made himself terribly sick drinking it," said Mr. Chuggins, reproachfully. "What's the matter with him?" inquired the garage proprietor. "I don't exactly. Maybe you'd call it auto-intoxication." — Washington Star.

Cracked Shells Of 'Cot Pits Prove Success As Surfacing For Streets

CRACKED shells of apricot pits are proving successful as surfacing material for dirt streets, it was stated today by City Engineer W. W. Hoy.

Several months ago the city decided, as an experiment, to cover certain sections of approximately nine streets in Santa Ana with the cracked pit shells.

The supply was drawn from a huge pile at the plant of Guggenheim & $799.80 was expended for the cracked pit shells. It is believed that, considering the results obtained, the city could not have secured a cheaper surfacing material.

Among the streets surfaced with the pits were the following: Baker, from Fifth to Washington; Hathaway, from First to Fourth; Hesperion, from First to Fourth; Fruit, from Garfield to Mabury; Stafford, from Garfield to Santiago; Pointsettia, from Fifth to Washington; French, from Washington to Seventeenth; Fairview, from Ross to Bristol, and Olive, from First to Fourth.

DEMONSTRATIONS OF TRACTORS PLANNED AT FULLERTON HIGH

Agriculturists of Orange county are interested in the announcement, made today by J. M. Alcorn, head of the department of agriculture at Fullerton Union high school, that an expert on tractor lubrication, of San Francisco, will give a lecture at the school tomorrow, beginning at 9 o'clock in the morning and continuing until 12 o'clock.

Tractor demonstrations will be staged at the Fullerton school practically all next week. On Monday and Tuesday eight different types of tractors will be on the ground, and these will be studied. On Wednesday and Thursday demonstrations will be given by the students in connection with field operation of the tractors. On Friday there will be a demonstration, by experts, of the use of the tractor in orchards.

Illustrated lectures are to be given at the Fullerton school on Tuesday and Wednesday nights by experts. A representative of the Holt Manufacturing Company will give the Tuesday evening lecture, while a representative of the International Tractor Company will deliver Wednesday evening's lecture. Forty pupils are taking the tractor course at the Fullerton high school, Alcorn stated. It is probable that this number will be increased somewhat next week.

It is believed that a large number of ranchers will attend the various lectures and demonstrations.

YOUNG WIFE FORGES CHECKS FOR CANDY

SANTA BARBARA, Jan. 16.—Claiming that the high cost of living and payments on a home took all the money her husband could earn and she could earn by taking in washing and that she wanted candy, motion pictures and trinkets like other girls had, Mrs. Mabel Hildebrand confessed here to a long list of check forgeries which, although seldom over $10, totaled more than $200.

Mrs. Hildebrand is 21 years of age and has been married three years. In spite of the fact that she took in washing to help meet the home payments, she has kept a girlish appearance and girlish desires for candy and motion pictures, which, she says, led her to forge.

FIRE HITS COFFMAN FOR THE THIRD TIME

ANAHEIM, Jan. 16.—R. E. Coffman, fumigator, has received word that fire has visited his ranch at Porterville and destroyed his barns and sheds together with machinery, two trucks, autos, etc. The loss, he says, is estimated at $7000. This is the third time that Mr. Coffman has sustained losses by fire and he thinks he has had his full share.

COUNTY INCLUDED IN SOUTHERN FARM LOAN ASSOCIATION

Orange county is to be included in what is to be known as the First National Farm Lands Association of Southern California. According to an announcement made in San Diego yesterday by W. A. Van Loon, secretary-treasurer of the Federal Farm Lands Association of San Diego county, San Diego becomes the headquarters for federal farm loans for Southern California.

Van Loon said that the step was taken by Washington, D. C., authorities on requests from the federal loan bank of the eleventh district, and because of the thoroughness and excellence of the work of the San Diego association. The San Diego association has changed its by-laws so that it can become the Southern California association, and so that it can meet the request from the Washington authorities.

The association will hold jurisdiction over Santa Barbara, Ventura, Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino, San Diego, Riverside and Imperial counties.

The San Diego Farm Lands Association was originally organized in the Ramona district and now has a membership of 130. Henry Baldwin, M. W. Jones, A. C. Whiting, H. A. Warnock and Bruce Dye, all of San Diego county, were constitute the new board of directors elected yesterday.

Operation of the association throughout Southern California will not conflict with any other farm loan associations, but on the contrary will work with them.

SOMEONE STEALS ACID BELIEVING IT ALCOHOL

POMONA, Jan. 16.—Someone played a ghastly joke on himself here during the supper hour last night—but he didn't know it till afterwards. C. P. Dayer, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, returned to his office after supper to clean up some work, and found that several large jars of exhibits had been tampered with. Sealing wax from the eucalyptus berry jar had been scraped off and five gallons of the liquid drained into another vessel apparently. "I guess some one had the impression," said Mr. Dayer, "that the solution was alcoholic. I hate to say it, but it was a diluted solution of carbolic sulphuric acid."

N. B.—No casualties have yet been reported.

PEACE RECORD IN SANTA ANA FOR PAST YEAR IS GOOD

Fewer Arrests for All Causes Than During Previous Twelve Months

With Demon Rum completely out of the way in Orange county—completely out so far as legal operation was concerned—for the last six months of the year, and the opportunity for acquiring jags less available for the full year by Anaheim closing up saloons on January 1, the peace record of Santa Ana for the past year is the best in many years, and this city was more than orderly, due in a measure to the activities of City Marshal Jernigan and his assistants.

In 1918, the total arrests were 1005 for all offenses, including infractions of the motor traffic ordinance, and in 1919 the total was 654.

With the decrease in the number of arrests came a decrease in the amount of money collected in fines through the office of City Recorder Heathman. The total collections in 1918 were $3721.70, while in 1919 they were $2854, a decrease of $867.70. In both years the auto fines were greater than the combined collections for violations of all other city ordinances. The fines paid by men found guilty of looking too intently on the cup that cheers are not segregated by Col. Heathman in his monthly reports, but as shown by the figures of City Marshal Jernigan they formed a very minor part of the total.

Following is a table showing the arrests by months in the years 1918 and 1919 as compiled from records in the office of City Marshal Jernigan:

Motion Pictures To Be Used To Show Highway Conditions

MOTION pictures showing the condition of the state highway south of El Toro in this county, where the road is being widened, have been taken by C. E. McStay, Los Angeles secretary of the Auto Club of Southern California, in response to numerous complaints against the condition of the road. McStay said that the pictures will be shown to the state highway commission soon in support of an argument for a change in construction methods.

The principal complaint has been that sharp broken rock from the side of the highway where improvement work is being done is scattered on the half of the pavement left open for traffic.

There are 2000 feet of incontrovertible evidence of the conditions that many motorists have complained of recently, he said. Secretary McStay found conditions along the section where the widening process is under way to be as bad, he said, as the complaints have indicated. But the fault lies partly with motorists who drive into or across the rock piles and scatter the sharp bits of stone all over the surface of the road.

San Diego managers of stage lines have complained that the scattering of the crushed rock wrecks havoc with their tires, and causes much needless expense and worry to motorists who travel the route.

WATCH YOUR HIP SLOGAN AFTER MIDNIGHT TONIGHT

John Barleycorn Will Depart Without Mourners In Santa Ana

"Watch your hip" will be the slogan after 12:01 a. m. tomorrow instead of "watch your step," for all bulging hip pockets will be viewed with suspicion as retaining a container wherein swishes John Barleycorn.

John Barleycorn will be dead after that hour, so far as legal recognition to his claim to life is concerned, and woe be to the man who is found in public with a bottle stored away in his jeans.

It will be a black Friday in Santa Ana for John for he will not be given even a farewell by his Santa Ana enemies and his friends have deserted him in toto at the moment of his final passing struggle. There will be no meetings this evening to give him the "parting shot." He will be gone, but not forgotten, until time has effaced his memory and blotted out the black spots he has left in his wake.

Church and W. C. T. U. workers will hold a big jubilee in Los Angeles tonight and it may be that a number of Santa Anans will find their way into the Angel city to assist in the obsequies there. John never has had a very strong hold in Santa Ana, at least not in recent years, and his mourners are few, indeed, in this community. Rather there is a general rejoicing for a new area is dawning, not only for this section but in all sections throughout the United States, and happiness and good cheer will abound in the homes and among the people who have been enslaved by him.

Prayers are Offered

This afternoon at the revival meeting at the First Baptist church, prayers of thanks for the elimination of the evils of John Barleycorn were offered and praise given for the successful ending of a battle that has waged for many years.

Since the nation went dry—or partially dry—there has been a big reduction in the number of arrests in Santa Ana for drunkenness, according to records for the years of 1918 and 1919 in the office of City Marshal Jernigan.

APPROPRIATION PETITION NOT COMPLETED, SAYS LEE

Moisture, Organic Matter, Lime Will Make It Good Deciduous Land

The project of taking water from the Freeman river, which has its sources in peat springs in the lowlands near Wintersburg, for the irrigation of the Huntington Beach mesa, is at a standstill, and seems likely to remain at a standstill for some time unless the visit of Prof. J. W. Neilson, soil expert of the College of Agriculture, University of California, to the mesa yesterday, stirs up anew interest in the project.

One development of the status of do-nothing in which the matter has stood for several months came today in a statement from C. H. Lee, executive member of the State Water Commission, saying that the petition for the appropriation of waters of Freeman river has been closed by the commission because the applicant failed to complete his application.

It was some eight or nine months ago that the proposal to form an irrigation district of 2500 of 3,000 acres on the Huntington Beach mesa was made. Believing that the project was in every way commendable and feasible, the Farm Bureau interested itself in getting the facts and presenting these facts to the people.

Experts Find Waste

University experts were brought here and a thorough investigation was made. It was found that early in the summer between 400 and 500 inches of water was going to waste, rising mostly in peat springs, and in easy pumping reach of the mesa. An analysis of the water brought the report that the water was the best water to be found in Orange county for irrigation purposes. The department engineers estimated that the pumps could be installed, taking the water at the surface, and a distributing system of concrete pipes put in for a total cost of about $100 an acre.

Meetings were held, and an arrangement was made whereby Geo. F. Fowler, a rancher, should apply

Mrs. J. W. Bishop has received word that her brother, Oran Miller, who is well known in this district, is expecting to undergo a serious operation this week. He has suffered greatly with ear trouble and a mastoid operation which he will go through will be of a very delicate nature. Friends of Mr. Miller are seriously concerned over his condition.

On Monday evening the Eastern Star entertained the grand worthy matron of the state of California, with her accompanying party of grand officers. The work of the chapter was performed and very favorable comment was made upon both officers from Fullerton and Buena Park, who were the entertaining chapters.

Many visiting members from Santa Ana, Anaheim, Norwalk, Artesia, Los Angeles and Huntington Beach beside Fullerton people were present and greatly enjoyed viewing the new Masonic Temple. As a pleasant interlude in the evening's program, Miss Wishard and Miss Arrey of Fullerton sang, "Roses of Picardy." Following the ceremonies delicious refreshments were served in the banquet room.

Little Everett Nutall was the unfortunate victim of a serious fall at school on Tuesday of this week when he broke his leg near the kneecap. Medical assistance was immediately called in by the teachers and he was made as comfortable as possible before being taken home.

Common tea has a lot of tannin in it. The tea-taste develops first; then the tannin comes along.

If you steep it only long enough to draw-out the tea, you get weak tea. If you let it steep longer, the tannin, harsh-puckery taste, completely smothers the tea-taste, —fluid that really can't be called tea.

Fine tea, like Schilling's, contains very little tannin.
If you steep it right—not too long—you skip the tannin altogether. You get nothing but delicious, invigorating tea.

There are four flavors of Schilling
Tea—Japan, Ceylon—India, Oolong,
English Breakfast. All one quality.
In parchment-lined moisture-proof packages.
At grocers everywhere.

Wintersburg-Smeltzer

WINTERSBURG & SMELTZER, Jan. 16—Mrs. Harry Woodington drove her machine to Los Angeles Thursday and left it to be overhauled at the Y. M. C. A. tractor school, where a nephew, George Woodington, is taking a machinist's course. He will do all the work personally and will drive the machine home the latter part of the week and is expected to remain over Sunday as a guest at his uncle's home.

The lumber for W. F. Slater's new house was hauled onto the ground Wednesday of this week. A two weeks' wait on the delivery has somewhat delayed the work, the foundation having been completed last week.

A new set of belts is being installed in the Dunning bean warehouse at Smeltzer this week, which will accommodate twelve more women, bringing the crew of pickers up to thirty-one, there being nineteen at present employed.

Mrs. Mary E. Clemens, daughter, Miss Ira and son Reuben, were Sunday dinner guests of the former's daughter, Mrs. Don McMillan and family at Smeltzer.

Miss Ruth Jordan of the Ocean-view faculty goes Friday evening to Los Angeles where she will remain overnight at the home of her cousin, Miss Helen Jordan, returning here Saturday.

Mrs. Ella Rogers and daughter, Miss Gertrude Rogers of Los Angeles, were entertained for the day Wednesday by Mrs. B. F. Gotthard.

The Pacific Humus Peat Fertilizer Co. is beginning to do a lively business. Ten men are now employed hauling out the peat to dry and the work is being pushed as rapidly as possible while weather conditions are favorable.

Friday evening being rather a blustering evening the attendance at the usual weekly Mexican church service at Wintersburg was not nearly so large as usual. As Rev. Tier, re could not be present to preach, Rev. J. S. Wilmarth took over the service and gave a talk in English to the congregation. The congregations have been satisfactorily large so far, however, in doing a good work among his people.

Next Sunday being "Law and Order Sunday," as prescribed by the various churches in view of the fact of this being the first Sunday following the enforcement on Friday of this week of the national prohibition law, Rev. J. Scott Wilmarth will preach a special sermon dealing with the subject at the eleven o'clock service. "Keeping up the Fight What Next?" will be the subject of his discourse. The evening subject will be "God's First Question."

The Christopher gun club of 80 acres was sold the past week; L. D. Christopher of Los Angeles, the one for whom the club was named, being the purchaser. There are 80 acres of land, devoted entirely to ponds, none being under cultivation. The consideration received in the transaction was $200 an acre, making the deal one in the $16,000 class. Twenty-two hundred acres of the Hellman ranch, extending southward from the turn of the Seal Beach boulevard for a mile and three tenths was leased the past week by the Standard Oil company for a term of years.

R. L. Morgan, who is ranching the A. D. Cleaver place commenced irrigating forty acres to sugar beets. The remaining twenty acres will be planted to beets later.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Morgan and family, who have been under an extended quarantine have received their freedom and after a thorough fumigation are once more enjoying life. All members of the family who had the scarlet fever are entirely well and are not suffering from any bad after effects of the disease. The family spent Sunday at Huntington Beach at Mrs. Morgan's mother's while the house was under fumigation.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Pryor entertained at their home Sunday and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Wetlin and family of Orange and a nephew, J. W. Murphy and family of Los Angeles. ## GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion

Gas and wind in the stomach accompanied by that bloated feeling after eating are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ailments. Food ferments and sours, creating the distressing gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat it with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bisulphate of Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This will drive the gas and wind and blast right out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bisulphate of Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

REALTY MARKET GETS ACTIVE AT BEACH

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Jan. 16—The prospecting for oil on the mesa here has surely stirred up a considerable interest in the real estate market and the rentals about this city. Scarcely a day passes now but what many strangers are in town inquiring about furnished houses for rent, or acreage for sale. This surely is an opportune time for some one to invest in some furnished houses or apartments for rent in this city. Never was the need so urgent for this class of buildings as at present in the history of the place.

Business along all lines is picking up and a demand for more and better business houses in town is making itself known in a marked degree. The parties owning the northwest corner of Main and Ocean avenue have given notice to all tenants that they must vacate as the old buildings will soon be removed and a large brick block will be erected on that corner. It is rumored about town that these same parties have purchased the adjoining lot on the west and will build larger than formerly contemplated, which will make the corner block cover about 75x115 feet. This will give ample room for several large store rooms on the ground floor and office rooms or apartments above as may be planned.

The Home Dining room, which has been occupying one of the old buildings on this corner, will move into the Collins block, where T. B. Talbert formerly had his office, and John Dalany, the fruit dealer, will move his business temporarily into the old store building just south of R. E. Lee's grocery. The Kandy Kitchen has not decided yet where it will locate, but in all probability it will locate on the east side of Main street until the new block is ready as Mr. Obarr is one of the interested parties in the structure.

Carl Olson, the furniture dealer, has been putting a new canvas awning in front of the Frank Gibbs store.

The street work now being done at Main and Ocean avenue contemplates the surface of the streets and sidewalks to be on a level when finished, which will be a decided improvement over having to step up and down over the curb when crossing the streets. That was the plan adopted when all of the recent concrete work was put in the city, although when the South end of Main street was put in some twelve years ago the street was finished nine inches below the sidewalk.

The ladies will give a banquet to the city officials and their wives this evening at Odd Fellows hall.

Mr. Griffin, who recently purchased the C. F. Shorting place, has bought one of the old buildings on the corner of Main and Ocean avenue, which was formerly used by Ned Brown for a barber shop, and will move it to his place for a garage.

Dr. S. G. Huff will soon move in from the ranch and occupy his house at 208 Fifth street. Friends are glad to welcome the doctor as a resident of this city and trust he may be induced to join the Rod and Reel Club, which will open activities about April 15, although he may be allowed to practice before that time.

Silas Wright of Santa Ana was a caller in the city Wednesday.

C. C. Strong of Seattle, Wash., was looking over some property about the city Wednesday with the idea of locating here.

John Moore of 419 Concord avenue, Monrovia, was a caller in the city Tuesday, looking over prospects for
